A special invite to the winner of each County Fair and Beef Show to join other County Supreme Champions to compete at "THE NEW YORK STATE SUPREME CHAMPION BEEF FEMALE SHOW" at the New York State Fair, on Beef Day, September 1, 2020.

PURINA ANIMAL NUTRITION sponsors both NY State Supreme Champions with a $1000.00 check. PURINA ANIMAL NUTRITION awards the NY State Reserve Champions with a $500.00 check. Each will also be awarded a Trophy (the Supreme Champion ones are revolving Trophies) from the NYBPA, and a banner from the New York State Fair.

OFFICIAL RULES:

- You must be a member of either the NYBPA or NYJBPA.
- Ownership of animals should be dated no later than May 1 of the current year.
- Competition is open to all beef breed females, Purebred or Commercial, including cow/calf (calf can be male or female). At State Fair competition cow/calf must compete as pair and calf must nurse in show ring.
- You must participate in the Parade of Champions on Supreme Show Day or you will be disqualified.
- The rules at participating County Fairs will apply when determining their female Supreme Champion. - The Judges decision will be final decision. It is suggested that the County Fair pick a Reserve. In any case a Supreme can't make the Supreme Show the Reserve to the said County Fair can represent the County. For County Fairs that have both Heifer & Cow/calf Supremes it is up to the County to pick which animal will represent their County at the NYS Supreme Show, the other Supreme can then be an alternate.
- An individual beef female entry can only win one (1) chair. In the event the same Beef Female wins a Supreme Champion at another County Fair, the Judge must pick a Reserve Champion which will receive the chair and honors to compete at State Fair.
- An exhibitor can have numerous candidates for State Supreme.
- You then are invited for competition at The New York State Fair in Syracuse, on Beef Day, September 1, 2020. Rules are also listed in the NYS Fair Book.
