Everyone with an interest in the beef industry is welcome to attend this informational meeting. Membership in these beef producer groups is not required to attend. Topics covered will provide BQA re-certification credits.

A short business meeting will kick-off the evening followed by our guest speakers:

- Dave Wilson, DVM, retired large animal veterinarian from near Canandaigua, NY -
"The Immune System in Cattle and How Vaccines Work"
- Jason Engel, Shamel Milling, East Concord, NY and staff -
"Testing our Hay and Forages - Understanding the Test Results"
Each farm will receive one complimentary forage analysis (additional samples can be analyzed at cost). Please bring a representative sample in a labeled and sealed quart bag.
- Representatives of the New York Beef Industry Council will share current issues and activities for our state's beef producers.
- Rich Brown, Equity Angus, Port Byron, NY, serves as New York State's representative on the National Cattlemen's Board will provide an update on national beef industry issues.

The cost of the delicious dinner is $25 per adult and $15 per youth, which will include:

Local braised beef, honey basted chicken, parsley and butter potatoes, green bean casserole, salad, cobbler and beverages (prepared by 3-C's Catering). Reservations for dinner are required by February 4th by contacting Ted Card, at 716-664-3339 or lvj1259@netsync.net.

Payment for dinner will be accepted at the door.

All are encouraged to join in the membership to participate in our WNY Beef Producer groups and Cornell Cooperative Extension, but not required to participate in this meeting. Membership forms will be available at this meeting.*
