

The NYJBPA Fall Festival was held in Cobleskill, NY at the Schoharie County Fairgrounds where 120 Juniors attended proudly showing their 181 head of cattle. Chris Wojciechowski from Middlebrook, Virginia evaluated the Showmanship and Beef Show.

The Fall Festival is a very busy weekend for the kids doing numerous Educational Contests- Meats Identification, Livestock Judging, Stockman's Quiz, and Team Fitting, along with the Showmanship and Breed Show. The weather was great and the enthusiasm amongst the Juniors is outstanding. This was the largest show and what a group of young individuals to promote Beef in New York. The AAPC, and some professors from Cobleskill College helped with the Contests.

Congratulations to the all the Juniors for an excellent weekend filled with hard work, sportsmanship and friendly competition.
